 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. The faculty of the Gymnasium in Strumica includes the following:

Aleksandar Agovski, director. An active Communist.

Manov Dimitrov, geography. Non-Communist.

Slobodan Nikolovski, Macedonian language. No political affiliations.

Anka Petrova, physics. Non-Communist.

A certain Konstantinov, natural sciences.

An unidentified lieutenant, first name Krsto, pre-military training.

2. The students have two hours pre-military training per week, one of theory and one of practice. Wooden guns are used for drill. The Gymnasium has for its permanent use only one rifle and one Smejser (sic).¹ At the end of the school year there is shooting practice with arms borrowed from the military in Strumica.

3. There are few Communists among the students. The Communist student association is poorly run and inefficient. The students are compelled to join this organization but they attempt to avoid getting involved in its activities.
